

Building Britain Award Nomination Form

The Irish Post Building Britain Award will be presented at The Irish Post Awards 2023, which will take place on Thursday 9th November at The Great Room of The Grosvenor House Hotel on Park Lane.

Readers of The Irish Post are invited to nominate companies to be considered as recipients of this Award. Nominations should be operating within the wider Construction sector in Britain and have shown demonstrable success/achievement in their field. The nominated company should be Irish-owned or Irish-founded and operating in Britain.

The closing date for receipt of nominations is Friday 1st October 2023 and a company can be nominated by either individuals or companies.

An independent panel will consider all nominations and shortlist 5 companies, which will be announced on Thursday 9th November.

The Irish Post publishes a monthly glossy magazine, titled Building Britain, which is focused on the Irish construction industry across the country.
